14.3 In the event that the Parties fail to reach an agreement within the said period of 10 (ten) Business Days, any of the Parties may refer the matter to arbitration at the Africa Institute of Mediation and Arbitration ("AIMA") by a single arbitrator in terms of the AIMA's rules.

14.4 The arbitrator shall be appointed by the Parties but, if they cannot agree on a suitable person within 5 (five) Business Days, either Party may refer the matter to AIMA, to appoint an arbitrator.

14.6 The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the Parties and shall be carried into effect. The arbitrator's award may be made an order of any court of competent jurisdiction.

14.7 The Parties agree to keep the arbitration, including the subject matter of the arbitration, confidential and the evidence heard during the arbitration, confidential and not to disclose it to anyone except for the purposes of an order to be made;

14.9 Except to the extent that a court eviction process is initiated by the Seller pursuant to the termination of this agreement, the provisions of this clause are severable from the rest of this agreement and shall remain in effect despite the termination or invalidity for any other reason of this agreement.

14.10 Pending the resolution of any dispute in terms of this clause 15, the Parties shall be required to continue with the performance of their obligations in terms of this Agreement.

15 JURISDICTION AND APPLICABLE LAW

20 CESSION And DELEGATION

20.1 Except as provided for elsewhere in this Agreement, the Purchaser may not cede any or all of their rights or delegate any or all of their obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the Seller, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld and is on the understanding that any outstanding balance is settled in full and arrear Transfer Costs are deposited to the Legal Practitioners Trust Account.

20.2 Any proposed cession of the rights and obligations of the Purchaser in respect of the Property in terms of this Agreement shall be captured in a separate agreement of cession to be entered into between the Purchaser, as transferor, and the transferee; which agreement of cession shall specifically deal with the terms and conditions applicable to the ceding by the Purchaser of their rights and obligations in respect of the Property.

20.3 Any proposed cession by the Purchaser of their rights and obligations in respect of the Property shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement; and once the agreement of cession is executed, the transferee shall be bound by and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement as if the transferee was in the position of the Purchaser at the Effective Date.
